AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants and agreements herein set forth, and in order to induce the Secured Party to enter into the Note and perform its obligations thereunder, the Debtor hereby acknowledges and agrees that it will receive material benefit from the Note and agrees with the Secured Party as follows:

Section 1. Definitions. The term "State", as used herein, means the State of Texas. All terms defined in the Uniform Commercial Code of the State and used herein shall have the same definitions as specified therein. However, if a term is defined in Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code of the State differently than in another Article of the Uniform Commercial Code of the State, the term has the meaning specified in Article 9. The term "Obligations", as used herein, means all of the indebtedness, obligations and liabilities of the Debtor to the Secured Party, whether direct or indirect, joint or several, absolute or contingent, due or to become due, now existing or hereafter arising under the Note and this Security Agreement (the "Loan Documents").

Section 2. Grant of Security Interest. The Debtor hereby grants to the Secured Party, to secure the payment and performance in full of all of the Obligations, a security interest in, and so pledges and assigns to the Secured Party, the following properties, assets and rights, wherever located, whether now owned or hereafter acquired or arising, and all proceeds and products thereof (all of the same being hereinafter called the "Collateral"): all personal property of the Debtor of every kind and nature, whether tangible or intangible, including without limitation all goods (including inventory, equipment and any accessions thereto), instruments (including promissory notes), documents, accounts (including insurance receivables), chattel paper (whether tangible or electronic), deposit accounts, letter-of-credit rights (whether or not the letter of credit is evidenced by a writing), securities and all other investment property, supporting obligations, any other contract rights or rights to the payment of money, insurance claims and proceeds, and all general intangibles (including all intellectual property and payment intangibles).

Section 3. Representations and Warranties; Covenants. The Debtor hereby warrants and covenants as follows:

(a) The Debtor will promptly furnish the Secured Party such information concerning the Debtor, the Collateral, and any of the Debtor's account debtors as the Secured Party may at any time reasonably request.

(b) The Debtor will permit the Secured Party and its representatives at any reasonable time to inspect any and all inventory forming part of the Collateral, and to inspect, audit and make copies of and extracts from all records and all other papers in possession of the Debtor pertaining to the Collateral and the Debtor's account debtors, and will promptly, on request of the Secured Party, deliver to the Secured Party all such records and papers. The Secured Party shall treat all such records and information pertaining to the Collateral provided to it hereunder as confidential information, and hereby agrees not to disclose to any third party any such records or information pertaining to the Collateral.

Section 4. Disposition of Collateral in Ordinary Course. Nothing herein shall prevent the Debtor from selling, trading in, or replacing any of the Collateral in the ordinary course of its business.

Section 5. Secured Party May Perform. Secured Party, at its option, and after ten (10) days' written notice to Debtor, but without any obligation whatsoever to do so, may (i) discharge taxes, claims, charges, liens, security interests, assessments or other encumbrances of any and every nature whatsoever at any time levied, placed upon or asserted against the Collateral to the extent then past due, (ii) place and pay for insurance on the Collateral, including insurance that only protects Secured Party's interest, (iii) during the continuance of an Event of Default pay for the repair, improvement, testing, maintenance and preservation of the Collateral, (iv) pay any filing, recording, registration, licensing or certification fees or other fees and charges related to the Collateral, or (v) take any other reasonable action necessary to preserve and protect the Collateral and Secured Party's rights and remedies under this Agreement. These payments and expenditures, together with interest thereon from date incurred until paid by Debtor at the maximum contract rate allowed under applicable laws, which Debtor agrees to pay, shall constitute additional Obligations and shall be secured by and entitled to the benefits of this Agreement. The Debtor agrees to reimburse the Secured Party on demand for any payment made, or any expense incurred by the Secured Party pursuant to the foregoing authorization, including attorneys' fees and expenses. Until an Event of Default, the Debtor may have possession of the Collateral and use it in any lawful manner not inconsistent with this Security Agreement and not inconsistent with any policy of insurance thereon.

Section 6. Obligations Secured; Default; Certain Remedies.

(a) This Security Agreement secures the Obligations to the Secured Party. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default (as defined in the Note) with respect to the Debtor's Obligations under the Loan Documents (which shall be following the failure of Debtor and/or any Cure Party (as defined in the Note) to cure or correct an Event of Default within the sixty (60) day time frame set forth in Section 5 of the Note), the Secured Party shall have the remedies of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code in the State. The Secured Party may require the Debtor to assemble the Collateral and make it available to the Secured Party at a place to be designated by the Secured Party which is reasonably convenient to both parties. Unless the Collateral is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, the Secured Party will give the Debtor reasonable notice of the time and place of any public sale thereof or of the time after which any private sale or any other intended disposition thereof is to be made. The requirements of reasonable notice shall be met if such notice is mailed to the Debtor via registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, at least fifteen (15) days before the time of sale or disposition. Expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale, selling or the like, shall include the Secured Party's reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses. For the avoidance of doubt, an event shall not be considered an Event of Default (hereunder of under the Note) until Secured Party notifies the Board of Directors of Debtor of such default pursuant to Section 5 of the Note and Debtor and/or a Cure Party fails to correct or cure such default event within the sixty (60) day time period following such notice in accordance with Section 5 of the Note. In addition to any other remedies set forth herein, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and after reasonable notice as set forth in this Section 6(a), Secured Party may accelerate all or any part of the Obligations and at any time thereafter exercise and/or enforce any of Secured Party's rights and remedies at Secured Party's option.

(b) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and after reasonable notice as set forth in Section 6(a) above, Secured Party shall be entitled to immediate possession of all books and records evidencing any Collateral, and it or its representatives shall have the authority to enter upon any premises upon which any Collateral may be situated and remove the same therefrom without liability. Debtor shall be entitled to any surplus, and Debtor shall be liable to Secured Party for any deficiency.

(c) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default and after reasonable notice as set forth in Section 6(a) above, Secured Party may foreclose on the Collateral or any part thereof by any method permitted by the Uniform Commercial Code and sell or otherwise dispose of and deliver the Collateral or any part thereof or interest therein at public or private sale or sales, at such prices and on such terms as may be commercially reasonable, with the right to the Secured Party or any purchaser to purchase the whole or any part of the Collateral free of any right or equity of redemption in Debtor, which right or equity is hereby expressly waived and released.

(d) The Debtor hereby appoints the Secured Party as the Debtor's lawful attorney, with full power of substitution, in the name of the Debtor, for the sole use and benefit of the Secured Party, but at the Debtor's expense, to exercise, subject to the notice requirements set forth in paragraph (a) above, all or any of the following powers with respect to all or any of the Collateral from and after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default:

- (i) to demand, sue for, collect, receive and give a quittance for any and all monies due or to become due;
- (ii) to receive, take, endorse, assign and deliver all checks, notes, drafts, documents and other negotiable and non-negotiable instruments and chattel paper taken or received by the Secured Party;

- (v) to discharge any taxes, liens, security interests or other encumbrances at any time placed thereon; and
- (vi) to receive, open and forward the Debtor's mail.

Section 7. Debtor Remains Liable. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding:

(a) the Debtor shall remain liable under the contracts and agreements included in the Collateral to the extent set forth therein, and shall perform all of its duties and obligations under such contracts and agreements to the same extent as if this Security Agreement had not been executed;
